

KFF Band Hopper's Honor Roll Rules

The KFF Band Hopper's Honor Roll. WWFF Hunters who work 100 or more KFF References on multiple Amateur bands. The purpose of this award is to encourage Activators and Hunters to take full advantage of the spectrum allocated to the Amateur Radio Service to provide a practiced capability to support emergency disaster communications, basic to the charter of our service. It has the side effect of providing the opportunity for more Hunters to make QSOs with a reference by utilizing the diverse propagation offered by different Amateur bands.

GENERAL RULES: Operators are required to follow rules of their countries, within restrictions of their licenses, and to follow rules set forth by WWFF and its national organizations.

ELIGIBILITY: The Band Hopper's Honor Roll is available to all WWFF Hunters based on QSO credits in WWFF Logsearch database.

BANDS: All Amateur bands, including HF, VHF, and UHF (Note: Repeater QSOs are not permitted consistent with WWFF Rules.)

MODES: All modes are permitted. Endorsement stickers are offered for single mode achievements.

CERTIFICATES: The Band Hopper's Honor Roll certificate may be requested any time the 100 or more level has been achieved two or more Amateur bands. A new certificate may be requested if Honor Roll level has been reached on an additional band, or bands.

WWFF Hunters may determine their eligibility by using Logsearch. Detailed instructions can be found at: <https://wwffkff.wordpress.com/awards/>

Requests for the Band Hopper's Honor Roll should be made via email to n9mm@arrl.net. Please include a list of the bands for which you have qualified, along with your name and callsign.

MISCELLANEOUS: Have fun!!!!
